

This is the materials page from the print version of my PDF tutorial sold on Etsy. Hope you enjoy!
 For the complete tutorial with size/pattern guide- <https://www.etsy.com/shop/wisteriasuriranch>

Materials Image

Earth angel materials-        top left: Babydoll sheep wool, Corriedale in brown and green, white merino, beige suri alpaca roving, gray suri alpaca washed locks, hand-dyed lamb locks in green and pink, wooden chopstick (1 side), pipe cleaner	Close up- top/down-        Babydoll sheep wool, merino roving, Corriedale green and brown Notice- merino wool is very fine and smooth. The other wool is crimpy, shorter staple length, and not as smooth looking	Close up- beige Suri alpaca roving, gray Suri alpaca locks, green and pink dyed lamb locks. I bought white washed lamb locks and dyed them with Kool-aid packets. You can dye yourself or buy in these colors.	Bunny and basket materials- bunny color wool, basket color wool, lamb locks for decoration, black wool for eyes, pink wool for nose, and pipe cleaner for handle

Material List

- Finished weight is about 2 oz/60 g This can range a bit depending on material and slight size difference
- White merino roving (head) 0.14 oz/4 g You can use any wool since this will be covered
- Beige/skin color roving 0.04 oz/1g I use Suri alpaca to give it a very smooth look but this is totally up to you
- Suri alpaca locks for hair or roving 0.11 oz/3g You can use lamb locks, mohair or regular roving
- Babydoll sheep core wool for body/skirt base 0.74oz/21g You can use core wool batt or any wool you have
- Green Corriedale wool (dress top, leaves) 0.15oz/5g You can use any wool in any color of your choice
- Natural/brown Corriedale wool (skirt, base) 0.25 oz/7g You can use any wool in any color of your choice
- Lamb locks pink for flower 0.04oz/1g Locks are easiest and quickest to work with, but you can be creative
- Lamb locks green 0.39 oz/10g Locks are easiest and quickest to work with, but you can be creative
- Basket color wool 0.07oz/2g Optional
- Bunny color wool 0.04oz/1g Optional
- Pinch black and pink for bunny Optional
- Pipe cleaner 12 in/30cm This is enough for both the angel's arms and the basket handle
- Wood stick (chopstick) 7.5-8in/19-20cm This or any wood piece, even a little branch to give it a bit of structure
- Felting Foam
- Felting needle #38 gauge (all purpose) and fine gauge #40